GAY DAYS START IN WHITE MOUNTAINS

Many New Yorkers Flock to the Switzerland of America—Auction Bridge Popular at Bretton Woods

BRETTON WOODS, N. H., June 27.—The Mount Pleasant House opened on June 15 under the second season management of Ralph Herkimer, and many old patrons of the hotel arrived for the opening week, together with many honeymoon couples. Miss Margaret Stout, who passed the winter at her cottage in Orford, Fla., will again be at the Mount Pleasant House during the summer and in great demand as a partner at auction bridge. The Mount Pleasant may almost be said to be the auction headquarters of the White Mountains, for every evening the rotunda is dotted with tables and guests are intent upon bridge until time for gay little suppers in the grill.

Mrs. C. E. Warden of New York will pass the summer here as usual. Other New York visitors this season will include Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bingham, Miss O'Hara, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lyon, Dr. and Mrs. Horatia Krug and Miss Louise Krug, the golf champion; Charles Burke of Plainfield, A. D. Peterson and Walter Peterson.

The Mount Washington Hotel will open on July 8 at noon, with the customary salute of thirteen guns and the running up of the American flag as the guests congregate on the porch to sing "The Star Spangled Banner." This delightful custom was inaugurated by the late John Anderson at the opening of the hotel two years ago.

It is with regret that his friends learn that Clarence W. Seamus of New York, who has always been the first guest to register at the Mount Washington on the opening day, will be absent this year because of his absence in Europe. It is probable that the honor will fall to Louis A. Hamilton, who has been a guest at Bretton Woods hotels for more than thirty years and who is ranked as the leading golfer of the Bretton Woods Golf Club.

JEFFERSON, N. H.

JEFFERSON, N. H., June 27.—The Waumbek is one of the latest of the large hotels to open. Among New York women who spend the summer at the Waumbek are Mrs. Nathaniel Witherell, Mrs. William Brewster, Mrs. K. A. Neuhoff and Mrs. Augustus Kuntze. Mrs. Steinway's daughter, Mrs. Adolph Victor, has a cottage every season. Mr. and Mrs. Victor with their family are ardent fishermen.

The annual open championship tournament of the Waumbek Golf Club in August is the principal golf event of the White Mountains and has attracted many players. Last year's championship was won by Harold Slater of Fox Hills. Courtney Punderford also held the cup.

FRANCONIA NOTCH, N. H.

FRANCONIA NOTCH, N. H., June 27.—The New Profile House at Franconia Notch will be one of the last of the large hotels to open, and as usual there will be a large influx of guests over the national holiday. The Profile House in Franconia Notch, which is affiliated with the Profile House, opened early in the month and several

Society Organizes Summer Cabaret Club for Dining and Dancing

A new club has been started. It is the outgrowth of a certain exclusiveness which is apt to be felt more keenly in summer time than at other seasons of the year and is the result of the distaste that the members experience at being a part of the general mix-up that prevails at public cabarets.

The Summer Cabaret Club has already eighty members and a larger membership is assured. There have been two meetings and a third is scheduled for July 1. For its use the room of the Plaza has been set aside.

The club, new as it is and ideal in scope, does not pretend to dispense the more material needs of life. It does not intend, either severally or individually, to turn its back, even for the sake of the dancing, on the appetizing dinner that will be served on these occasional meetings on the terrace, and in addition a third room, a small dining room, is placed at the demand of the cabaret club, so that in rainy weather, or if the summer meetings last longer than the summer itself, dinners may be enjoyed without any climatic drawbacks.

While the club starts out without any rigid rules to add formality to what is intended above all else, says one of the committee, to be a purely enjoyable association, one rule, that only members and guests who accompany said members, will be admitted.

Unmarried members under 25 years of age will be admitted as guests of their parents, but those over 25 years of age will be expected to pay the membership fee.

The initiation fee is $3 and the dinner, with the accessories of a certain isolation, beautiful rooms for dining, lounging, card playing, etc., and the added joy of being able to meet one's friends, is served for $3 a cover if one prefers the special table d'hôte served by the hotel. If not, the usual a la carte prices will prevail.

"To go further back than the need felt for a place where dining and dancing may be enjoyed under the best conditions, in a semi-public place, the fundamental cause of the summer cabaret club has been brought about, more than anything else, by the automobile, which means the shermen have been making this their headquarters. Among members of the Profile cottage colony who will arrive early in the season are Mrs. Charles Stuart Smith, Mrs. Frederick Wendell Jackson, whose daughter, Mrs. Cornell (Louise Jackson), will doubtless be with her during a part of the season. Mrs. Emily B. Hopkins, who entertains her sister, Mrs. E. W. Bliss, Mrs. Algernon Sidney Jarvis, whose daughter, Mrs. C. E. Wood, and Dr. A. Wood, will be with her as guests, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. McHarg, Judge Martin J. Keogh and family of New Rochelle will again occupy the Keogh cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. P. Darrow, who spent the winter in St. Augustine, Fla., will again be found among the cottagers.

MAPLEWOOD, N. H.

MAPLEWOOD, N. H., June 27.—The Maplewood Hotel was selected by Lewis N. Spear, chairman of the committee of the American Automobile Association, as headquarters for the tourists on the national reliability tour and contest for the Golden Cup.

The Maplewood Inn has been open for some time. The golf links and Maplewood Gun Club will divide the attention of the sport lovers and tournaments are being arranged.

Among New Yorkers who will be of the Maplewood cottage colony this season are Mrs. Ella Telford Kirkland and family, who have taken the Sawyer cottage.

The Rev. Merrill E. Gates of Washington, D. C., is also to be among the cottagers, and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Smith will come from Baltimore to open cottage to James E. Carpenter, M. D. Fink and family, including Charlie Fink, the golfer. Henry S. Schley and Mrs. G. H. Moller have all taken cottages for the season.

BETHLEHEM, N. H.

BETHLEHEM, N. H., June 27.—The Bethlehem Country Club will renew its activity in the social and athletic life of Bethlehem on a more ambitious scale than ever. William McLaughlin, president of the club, also president of the Bethlehem Board of Trade, and his committee are making elaborate preparations for the season.

The Sinclair House will entertain many New Yorkers during the coming month, among them Mrs. Louis de Zerega, who will be accompanied by Miss Mary A. Tate, Miss Anna S. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Davis, all of New York. Mr. and Mrs. George B. Crawford and Mrs. Rebecca Goring of New York will have their usual suite and Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Brown of Boston will spend their twenty-fifth consecutive season at the Sinclair.

Buel W. Poore, president of the Garfield National Bank of New York, opens his country house in Bethlehem this month and arrives there with Mrs. Poore for the fourth year.

Col. and Mrs. R. A. Swigert of Alton will be among the guests.

Many of the committee live in Tuxedo, Cedarhurst, East Hampton, Greenwich and other nearby places. One can dash away in the early afternoon from any of these resorts and from possibly a monopoly of watering place or suburban life and get refreshed by meeting their old friends at dinner and a dance without premeditation on either side, then back in the early morning to a long country sleep.

Evening dress is not obligatory on the members, a license permitted owing to the fact that many of them are expected to come from long distances.

After the first of July the invitations, that permit those responding at once to take advantage of the opportunity, will be called in, and then the people who desire to join will have to be passed upon by the committee of membership in the usual approved manner. This has been found necessary by the quick and large response already made.

The patronesses are Mrs. Charles C. Auchincloss, Mrs. Don Barber, Mrs. Frederick Foster Carey, Mrs. Arthur L. Cunnock, Mrs. John M. Dickinson, Mrs. C. Howard Davison, Mrs. Louis du Pont, Irving, Mrs. Edith Lawrence, Mrs. James Parrish Lee, Mrs. Richard L. Morris, Mrs. Edward A. Moxie, Miss Annabelle S. Olyphant, Mrs. M. Albert Pease, Jr., Mrs. H. Hobart Porter, Mrs. Joel Rathbone, Mrs. J. Harlan Rhoades, Mrs. Harry S. Riker, Mrs. William R. K. Taylor, Mrs. Lindsay Tappin and Mrs. McLane Van Ingen.

The board of directors: J. Henry Alexander, George E. Batcheller, John Clinton Gray, Jr., Joseph Howland Hunt, Eulien T. Little, Frederic Potts Moore, Huntington Norton, W. Albert Pease, Jr., E. Vall Stephens, Lindsay Tappin and J. Lorimer Worden.

As usual, be at Sinclair Lodge. They will later entertain the LeBaron Coits and Stuyvesant Leroy of Newport.

ROD AND GUN, GOLF AND ART AT POLAND SPRING

Season Opens Early—Visitors Have Luck With Lake Bass.

POLAND SPRING, Me., June 27.—Visitors are returning to Poland Spring earlier than ever this year. Golf, fishing and trap shooting are the most popular sports of the early season. Garret A. Hobart, Jr., who with Mrs. Hobart and other members of his family is occupying the Campbell cottage for the season, leads in the trap shooting. George W. Elkins and S. B. Silson of Philadelphia opened the season for lake bass with good catches, and have consistently brought in good strings nearly every day since. Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer M. Singer of New York are also among the successful anglers.

Indications point to a great increase in the already large volume of summer automobile travel over the Ideal Tour. Among the tourists of the last week were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell of Washington, in company with Melville Bell Grosvenor of the same city.

The regular visitors at this resort include Mrs. Frank Richardson, George Schmehl, William R. Schmehl and Miss Schmehl.

New London Takes to New Golf Links

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 27.—The young dancing set at the Griswold is planning all sorts of good times for this season. Paul Pearce, Oscar Duryea's assistant, has taken charge of the dancing classes and cotillions planned by the young folks, and last night the first dance for Eastern Point society was held in the ballroom of the Griswold. Among the most enthusiastic dancers of the latest dances were Miss Helen Grant of Cincinnati and her brothers Charles and Julius, Miss Constance Grant of Boston, the Misses Glogau and their brother William, Miss Lamson of New York, Miss Boyd of Philadelphia and Major Bromley of New Haven.

Bohoses of race week are still to be heard. The Casino, the centre of social life at Equinox, has been the scene of several large functions. On the same evening, Thursday evening, seventy persons dined at the Casino and the ballroom of the Casino was thronged later with many of the guests of the Casino. Among the dancers were Mr. and Mrs. George Q. Whitney of New Orleans, Mrs. de Forest Danielson of Boston, Prof. and Mrs. Henry Schofield of Boston, and Isaac Thomas of Boston.

A number of dinner parties were a part of this week's programme at Equinox. Prof. Schofield gave a dinner for twelve and Mrs. Whitney gave a dinner for eight in honor of Miss Helene Denegre of New Orleans and Beverly Farms, Mass. Mrs. Clarence Gray Dinmore, who is at the Equinox Casino for a month, entertains many of her friends during the Harvard Yale races on the steam yacht Ituna, which is owned by William B. Dinmore. On Monday evening Mrs. Guthrie gave an engaging dinner for her son and his family, Miss Keahy. On the same evening Mrs. McCoskey built entertained a large bridge party at Rock Acres. Richard Mansfield 2d gave a dance this evening at his villa, The Grange. Mr. Mansfield proved a splendid host, such as was his father, the famous actor.

Gen. and Mrs. Edward H. Ripley and Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. McCagg of Newport are the guests of Miss Frances Ogden Jones. Miss Jones gave a large dinner party in honor of her house guests. Mr. Charles Schall of the Harvard varsity crew has gone abroad for a six weeks' trip.

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Binney, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. William Appleton, have returned to Boston. The Shennecossett Club, with its fine clubhouse and links extended to eighteen holes since last season, has completely changed the outdoor sporting life at New London. The yacht, motor boat and automobile have been pushed into a place of secondary importance and golf is king. The Shennecossett links are among the "sportiest" in the country and low scores are very difficult to make. Dr. Frederic Lund of New York, Charles E. Van Vleck of Montclair and Albert B. Hilton, Jr., of New York made the best scores of the last week.

Among the guests at the Griswold who are enjoying golf and tennis and the other sports are W. R. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Bradley, Miss S. E. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Spencer, Howard Gould, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pelton, the Misses Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm Beach, Hamilton L. Hopkin, Irving Pruyn, Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Engel, Mrs. Charles Haeckel, A. W. Howells, Miss Margaret Lamelling, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell, Ellery W. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Leach, all of New York.

Mrs. O. B. Camott, Miss Corney, Herbert McCard, C. B. Camott of Greenwich, George A. Draper, W. P. Draper, Hopedale, Mass.; L. J. Powers and family, Springfield; F. H. Wisson and family,

GOOD FISHING AT KINEO.

Anglers Experience Unusually Good Fortune at Moosehead Lake.

KINEO, MOOSEHEAD LAKE, June 27.—Seventy years of consecutive resort history marked the opening of the new Mount Kineo House Wednesday of this past week. About one hundred members of Lewiston commandery, Knights Templars, who came here for their annual outing added to the liveliness of opening day. Many of the guests of former years were back to participate, and the crowd was augmented by those here for the spring fishing.

The last few days saw the opening of a number of private camps and cottages. A. B. Waring of New York, commodore of Moosehead Lake Yacht Club, opened his bungalow camp, Neplawin, across Kineo Bay. E. H. O'Brien of New York has his family at their camp, Ethelwynd, at Kineo. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin Clark and family of New York, Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly, Jr., of New York, Dr. Ellice McDuff, Jr., of New York, Dr. E. A. Tyson of New York are located in their cottages along the west shore. Mr. and Mrs. George M. Thornton and Miss Margery Thornton of Pawtucket have opened their camp near Tonawanda Stream. Additions to the Kineo cottage colony are Lieut. Com. L. R. Sargent, U. S. N., and family, who will occupy the Dougherty cottage, and Samuel Wheatland of Topsfield, Mass., who with his family will have the Steele cottage.

Unusual good luck has attended the fishermen. Scores of the more fortunate of them are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tyson of New York, here for ten days; F. E. Cott of New York, who will spend the summer here with his family; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Heyman of New York, who are to stay the season through; Henry Albert Lloyd of New York, who is starting for the famous Alburgh trip. Others with good strings are J. J. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Dentz of New York, Gerard O'Brien of Orange, N. J., and Michael Tracy of Brooklyn.

Two interesting couples among the earlier arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Morton H. Holyoke, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Wallace, Jr., of Fitchburg, Mass., who are here on their honeymoons.

Among those at the Mount Kineo House for the opening were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Genung, Morristown, N. J.; Mrs. John C. Cook and Miss Susan Cook of Springfield, Ill.; S. W. Phillips and family, Salem, Mass.

Several of the members of the Thousand Islands Country Club have taken up residence at the clubhouse on Wellesley Island. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. West of New York, Mr. and Mrs. George and daughter, Marie, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Havemeyer and daughter, Dorothy, of New York, Mrs. George Russell and Mrs. James Russell.

AT PAUL'S SMITH.

PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., June 27.—Early visitors to the St. Regis lakes have noted with keen pleasure the excellent condition of the St. Regis River Golf Club links. Some of the St. Regis players have played on European courses and find that their own course here excels any that they found on the other side. The picturesque clubhouse, a building patterned after the Swiss type of architecture, will be the central gathering place this summer of the cottage, camp and hotel colony.

Several parties came up this month to enjoy morning with golf and were delighted with the result. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. James Terry of Hartford, Conn., who decided to remain here for the season and have leased the Loomis cottage at Paul Smith's hotel.

While there have been many camp improvements and changes this season the principal new feature of the lakes is the large rustic cabin which has been completed at Camp Wildcat for the use of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills Reid, who are to spend the summer here. Mrs. White-law Reid will come early in July to camp and will be joined by her daughter, the Hon. Mrs. John Ward of London.

One of the most important real estate deals of recent years was the purchase of the Frederick W. Vanderbilt camp on Upper St. Regis Lake by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lee Pratt of Brooklyn. Pine Tree Point is a series of Japanese buildings and the only camp of the kind in the Adirondacks. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt with their family will spend the entire season here.

The wedding here on July 7 of Miss Eleanor Helen Garrison of Morristown and Dr. Francis Berger Truelsen, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edward L. Truelsen of Saratoga Lake, will bring to the resort a number of the camp colony, who otherwise would not come until a fortnight later. Dr. and Mrs. Truelsen are coming to their cottage July 3.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Moffitt of St. Louis have opened the Moffitt cottage and are entertaining Miss Ida Pollard, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Garcia Canazares of Cuba are at the Carnegie cottage and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones of San Francisco are at their lake shore cottage.

There will be several changes in the camp colony on Upper St. Regis and Spitz Lake this season and some of the familiar faces will be absent. Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes will not visit Birch Island camp, which has been leased for the season to Willard James, and Pearl Island camp will be occupied by James Howard of New York. The Grace Mitchell camp, on Spitz Lake, has been taken by Mrs. P. A. Barton of New York, and Mrs. Adolph Ladenburgh will have the Trowbridge camp.

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y.

ALEXANDRIA BAY, Thousand Islands, June 27.—With the first advent of warm weather the summer season at the Thousand Islands has commenced in earnest. The hotels are showing well filled registers. The programme of the Thousand Islands Yacht Club will be opened officially with a dancing party to be held on the evening of the Fourth of July. Dances will be held thereafter twice a week.

The officers of the Thousand Islands Yacht Club for the coming season have been announced. Charles M. Englis of Brooklyn has been named commodore, Norris Oliphant of New York vice-commodore, Chester R. Hoag of New York, taken by Mr. P. A. Barton of New York, and Mrs. Adolph Ladenburgh will have the Trowbridge camp.

Several of the members of the Thousand Islands Country Club have taken up residence at the clubhouse on Wellesley Island. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Charles S.
